Steve Weeks elected mayor for City of Belle Glade

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

The first order of business before the Belle Glade City Commission Monday night was to elect a new mayor, vice mayor, treasurer and appointment of a city attorney.

Steve Weeks, who was recently elected to his third term on the city commission, was chosen by his fellow commissioners to serve as mayor. This is the first time he has served in this capacity. He was fit to name me mayor," said Weeks.

He said that while he realizes it is more of a honorary title than anything else, "I'm also very humbled and I'll try to do my best," he said.

Longtime commissioner Daniel S. Bythwood was chosen vice-mayor and Happy Tucker will serve as treasurer.

Attorney John Baker was re-appointed as the city's attorney for another one year term. Mr. Baker has been the city's attorney for 29 years.

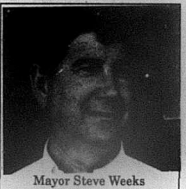

Mayor Weeks said he would like to see the city investigate the possibility of hiring an assistant city attorney to help take some of the work load off Mr. Baker.

Commissioner Tucker said he opposes the hiring of another attorney because of the cost and suggested the city manager and mayor look at the possibility of hiring a paralegal assistant for Attorney Baker.

He said he believes it will be less costly for the city and he could not support the cost of another attorney.

Commissioner Harma Miller told Attorney Baker he was doing an excellent job for the city, "but let's face it, you could get sick and no one is going to be around forever."

"I'm flat thrilled that four of my fellow commissioners saw

Mayor Steve Weeks

vice-mayor his last term.

He replaces out-going mayor Bill Bailey, who lost his bid for a seat on the commission last month by a small margin to Rodney Connell.

Mayor Weeks is co-owner of Seminole Supply Company in Belle Glade. He and his wife, Mary, have three children.

Pahokee youngster accidentally shoots self

By David Ranieri
Sun Reporter

A Pahokee youngster was in serious condition Wednesday morning following an accidental shooting.

On Tuesday at approximately 11:55 p.m., the Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, upon the request of the Pahokee Police Department, responded to a call at 881 Palm Boulevard in Pahokee.

Upon arrival, sheriff's detectives learned that a four year old female, Mirunza West had shot herself accidentally in the stomach with a .25 caliber handgun outside the residence.

It is not known how the child came in possession of the gun.

The child's mother Sharon

Smith, 25, was inside the house with three other children when the shooting occurred.

"Smith and her four children live in the house with her sister Audrey Kennedy, 21, and two nephews, 16 and 17."

West was taken to St. Mary's Hospital via Trauma Hawk where she underwent surgery and since that time her condition has been updated from critical to serious.

Presently, the case is still under investigation and will be presented to the Palm Beach County State Attorney's office. The state of Florida has a statute in reference to adults allowing children to come in contact with firearms.

Owner of Calusa Lanes protests truck ice business next to her property

By Brenda Bunting
Editor

"Anybody wanna buy a building?" was the parting shot of an angry business owner to Belle Glade City Commissioners Monday night.

Janie Harper, owner of the local bowling alley, says she is mad that a truck ice business has moved in next to her business on South Main Street.

She has owned and operated Calusa Lanes for over three years. Recently, city officials gave permission for Kirby Norman and James Chambliss to begin plans to open Glades Truck Ice on the property adjacent to Calusa Lanes. The business used to be located on Avenue L, next to Glades Ford.

Before permission could be granted for that type of operation, the request had to go before the City's Planning and Zoning Board. Notices were sent to all property owners whose land is adjacent to the property, but Ms. Harper said she did not receive notice.

"If I'd have known you were going to do this I would have protested, but I wasn't given a chance. I wasn't notified," she said.

The notice was mailed to her brother, J. Michael Ryan in New Port Richey. He is listed as the treasurer for the business.

Ms. Harper said her brother, a lawyer, did not receive the notice. She said every piece of mail coming into his office is opened and stamped with the date it was received. "Believe me, if he had gotten it, I would know," she said.

Now, she said, 18-wheel trucks and dump trucks are driving across her parking lot to get to Glades Truck Ice. She just had the parking lot paved last year. "This was made for cars, not 18-wheelers," she said.

She said she spoke to Mr. See Calusa Lanes..... page 3

Woman found stabbed repeatedly behind Big Lake Shopping Plaza

Police are still investigating an incident where a woman was found last Thursday evening with over 40 stab wounds to her body behind the Big Lake Plaza at 900 South Main Street, Belle Glade.

Mattie Walker, 66, of 1241 Southwest Avenue C, Belle Glade was found alive, but unconscious by Patrolman Richard Mathis after he received a call about the incident.

Ms. Walker was taken to Glades General Hospital where she was treated and later taken by Trauma Hawk to St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach for treatment of her wounds.

She is currently in intensive care at St. Mary's Hospital and is listed in stable condition.

Police Chief Michael Miller said his department is thoroughly investigating the incident, but he could give no details. He is hoping Ms. Walker will be taken off a respirator so he can talk to her about the stabbing.

No further information was available at press time.

Friend family named "Farm Family of Year"

A pioneer farm family from Pahokee was honored with the "Farm Family of the Year" award by the Western Palm Beach County Farm Bureau Tuesday night.

Farm Bureau member Ray Caruthers introduced the Lewis Friend family by saying "Every area has folks who mean something special. We in the Glades are special - we have some of the most outstanding people in the world."

Lewis Friend is a former mayor of Pahokee. He was born in Lamar, Colorado in 1913 and moved to the area called East Beach with his family in 1917.

His father, Frank, owned one of the first tractors in the area. He had to drive the Fordson from Loxahatchee to Pahokee through wilderness since there were no roads west of Loxahatchee.

At age 15, Lewis spent the 1928 hurricane huddled in the front seat of a car parked next to the school house.

In 1932, he joined his father in the farming business. They grew beans, peppers, and eggplant. A little later they brought the first potato seeds to the area. Lewis was also a pioneer in cattle production in the Glades.

He married Gethie Smith in 1935. She had moved to Pahokee as a young girl from Mississippi. They have three daughters, Kay Korbly, Cindy Schrimsher, and Merry Ann Friend. They have five grand-children and two great-grandchildren. Lewis served as Mayor of Pahokee from 1950 to 1955. He is a charter member of the Board of Directors of Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative, a director at the Bank of Pahokee, a former director of East Beach Water Management District and a past director of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association. He is a member of the Elks and Rotary Clubs and the First United Methodist Church of Pahokee. He enjoys fishing and hunting.

Norman about the problem, but it has continued.

Gene Simmons, administrator for the City's Planning and Building Department, said all the notices for the special meeting were hand delivered by the Belle Glade Police Department except for Ms. Harper's.

He said notices are normally mailed without return receipt requested, but after last night's meeting, staff has agreed future notices will be sent by registered mail.

He said Glades Truck Ice was granted a special use permit based on commission approval, to open an ice manufacturing business.

Ms. Harper said she is concerned about trucks entering the property all hours of the day and night. She said the business is noisy, dusty, and spray from the ice goes everywhere. She also said the place "looks like a dump."

She lives in a mobile home on her property at the back of the bowling alley.

Ms. Harper asked the city for a rehearing by the Planning and Zoning Board. She said she has lost over $100,000 since opening Calusa Lanes and fears her property value will decline with an ice plant adjacent to it.

Mr. Simmons said Glades Truck Ice has yet to submit architectural drawings and plans for the property, but that is not unusual since the hearing before the Planning and Zoning Board was just October 7.

Mayor Steve Weeks said he believes the two businesses can work out their differences.

He said city staff would talk to Mr. Norman about her concerns.

Mayor Weeks said Mr. Norman has already said he is willing to put up a fence on his property abutting Calusa Lanes and that should alleviate some of the problems.

Mr. Norman was reached Tuesday afternoon and asked his comments about the subject.

"I did everything they (the city) asked me to do," he said. "I went through every proper channel." He said he has never authorized his trucks to go across Ms. Harper's property and he does have two access sites and exits from his property.

He also said he plans to put up a fence between Glades Truck Ice and Calusa Lanes.

SPECIAL ATTENTION SPEEDING VEHICLES

The Belle Glade Police Department has been receiving a large number of complaints from our citizens regarding speeding vehicles. A large portion of the complaints are about speeding in the residential areas.

The concern of our citizens is shared by members of the Police Department and in response to these complaints the Police Department will begin conducting selective traffic enforcement in our residential areas using our traffic radar units.

It is recommended that you adhere to the posted speed limits in our community as speed attributes to a large number of the accidents we investigate as well as injuries and fatalities. Please help us make our streets safe for everyone.

She said hiring an assistant now would help the city train someone to fill in the event Attorney Baker became ill and could not do the city's business. She said the job is very complicated and could require a year or two of training.

In other business, the city heard from Attorney Reed McClosky, representing Mrs. Margaret Peavy.

Mrs. Peavy owns the building known as "The House of Pain" because it was a haven for prostitutes, and illegal drugs at 416 S.W. Ave. B Place, Belle Glade.

The building was condemned last year and labeled a dangerous building by the city's planning and building department.

Mrs. Peavy purchased the property from David Fowler, who she has since died. She has renamed the building "Big Mary's Apartment Complex."

She recently met same requirements by the Planning and Building Department by installing an 8-foot fence around the building and submitting construction drawings for work on the apartment complex to bring the building up to city code.

City Planning and Building Administrator Gene Simmons said she has also spread fill dirt on the property and removed the fill that was spilling over onto city sidewalks. He said she has yet to provide documentation to show how she will finance the project, which may cost over $300,000.

Attorney McClosky said Mrs. Peavy will absorb the cost of the project through her own capital and she may sell some existing properties to help with the financing.

City Attorney John Baker said Mrs. Peavy would need to show documentation that she has the capital to do the project.

The commission also voted to sign a Certification of Franchising Authority to regulate the local cable company, Cable Vision Industries.

After hearing from CVI Manager Doug Kelly, who said the certification would be very expensive for CVI and the City, officials agreed it was still in the best interest of the city and CVI customers to sign the document.

Water Management District offers 800 number for Lake

Lake Okeechobee boaters, fishermen and guides can now get current information on aquatic weed control activities conducted by the South Florida Water Management District. The District has installed an 800 phone number to update callers on where and when work crews will be applying herbicide on the lake.

By dialing 1-800-697-7516, the caller will hear a recorded message offering the latest information to help those on the lake avoid areas where District personnel will be working. The information will be current and updated frequently and will be available 24 hours a day, seven days a week. In addition, the District is posting signs at all boat ramps on the lake with similar information.

The maintenance of floating aquatic weeds, primarily water lettuce and water hyacinth, is an ongoing effort by the District which spends approximately $800,000 a year on herbicide spraying on the lake. Without any natural enemies, these exotic weeds grow uncontrolled.

By providing this information, the District hopes to divert boat traffic around spray areas.

Lofty thoughts

Hi, it's me again, the "Realistic American." Throughout the year a person can hear the normal rumblings about government from the dissatisfied masses, but around election time the rumbling becomes a roar. Recently we have been blessed with the task of selecting city commissioners for the City of Belle Glade. This election, like all others in the past, are really the way Americans perform the ritual of revolution. Instead of attacking city hall with torches and pitch forks on a dark foggy night, we eject our unwanted politicians with a ballot instead of an angry mob of local villagers.

Some people never vote, others just throw caution to the wind and use the ever popular "pick the politician from the hat trick," but there are those select few of us who determine the fate of our city with the determination a foot soldier would be proud of. Remember, the leaders we select today are the people we will be screaming at later. I hope that our decisions will not be based solely on a catchy name or by who had the pretties signs, but by what that person stands for. A good American never forgets that government works for the people - the people don't work for government.

I hope we made the right selections. Did you make a difference in this election? Only time will tell.

Well, I'll see you at the next revolution, and remember, the people and the way of life in the Glades are very special and only you can keep it that way.

Respectfully Submitted,
"The Realistic American"

Totally awesome

Take a close look at the copy of an actual Medicare check received by a local physician in the amount of 29 cents. Now, do you know why the Medicare system is always having problems?

If a breakdown were available on the actual cost of processing a payment it certainly would far exceed the 29 cents.

It's totally awesome the amount of money wasted and yet those who are deserving of Medicare and private health insurances are the ones who suffer. If by chance this arouses your anger, contact your elected state and federal officials and yes, even Mr. Clinton.

Child care problems

I'm calling about the day care centers around Belle Glade. Just wondering who I could get in touch with and why the only place that provides day care for children under two years of age are for migrant workers.

I don't understand. We pay hard earned tax dollars and we would even pay a regular amount for a day care and there's not even one available.

If we were in West Palm we would be able to find one very easily where they help potty train children for working people or there's available care for children under two years of age.

I would just like this concern brought out in the next paper so that maybe someone out there would be able to help us. Thank you.

Early retirement

I heard the city commission has voted to move the retirement period if you work for the city from 20 years of 15 years. How many commissioners and what's their names who voted to do something like that when the city is supposed to be in as bad of financial shape as it is?

They ought to get out in the real world and work in the private sector and see how long you have to work out there before you can retire.

Editor's note: This option is only offered through December of this year and is for employees who have been with the city for 10 years or more. They will be given an additional five years added to their tenure and offered full retirement benefits.

Commissioners Dan Bythwood and Steve Weeks voted against the option for general employees. When the vote came up for the police officers, Mr. Weeks was the solo dissenting vote. Commissioners Harma Miller, Mr. Bythwood, Happy Tucker and then Mayor Bill Bailey voted for the measure. City management says they believe this option will save the city thousands of dollars because some high salary employees will retire and new employees will be hired at a lower rate.

America's

Taxpayer's Action Day is
Oct. 16

By Karen Kerrigan
National Field Director for the Council for Citizens Against Government Waste

Elected officials everywhere are bracing for the biggest and most unified display of taxpayer or activism in recent history. The Council for Citizens Against Government Waste (CCAGW) expects this year's Taxpayer's Action Day, Oct. 16, to break all records, with rallies already scheduled in more than 140 communities nationwide.

"By early July our phones already were ringing off the hook," says CCAGW President Thomas A. Schatz, adding "Directly following Congress' August vote on the biggest tax increase in history, inquiries about Taxpayer's Action Day exploded."

The theme for Taxpayer's Action Day (TAD) 1993 is "Time to Get Ticked Off" - a fitting commentary for the state of mind of taxpayers everywhere, who are increasingly concerned about the record levels of deficit and debt that our country will hand down to its children and grandchildren.

The Washington Monument grounds in Washington, D.C., will be the site of the national TAD rally. Radio talk show host Michael Reagan, son of former President Ronald Reagan, will be the master of ceremonies. Taxpayers rapidly are organizing at the state level to travel to the nation's capital in mid-October. State coordinators working with CCAGW and Speak Out America - a Michigan-based reform group what will help spearhead the Washington TAD event - are organizing buses and caravans, to cut down on cost for travelers, and help bolster attendance at the Washington rally.

CCAGW has enlisted the support of national organizations, state and local taxpayer groups, and the community groups across the country to make TAD 1993 the greatest outpouring of citizen dissatisfaction with spendaholic government at all levels.

Prominent groups such as the National Taxpayers Union, Citizens for a Sound Economy, United We Stand America, Empower America, Christian Coalition, Seniors Coalition, U.S. Term Limits, Americans for Tax Reform, The Empowerment Network, and others have activated their grassroots networks to join CCAGW in the important event.

Please join your fellow Americans for TAD 1993. Call your local TAD leader to get more information about your community's event, or join us in Washington, D.C., by calling your state coordinator, or 1-800-BE-ANGRY (1-800-232-6479). If you state does not have a lead coordinator.

If you would like to organize a TAD rally in your community, write National Field Director, CCAGW, 1301 Connecticut Ave. N.W., Suite 400, Washington, D.C. 20036.

Jobs VS. environment misses the point

By S. Fred Singer

Director of the Washington-based Science & Environmental Policy Project

As they focus on how to speed up economic growth, President Clinton and his economic brain trust are considering many options. One reality they must accept, however, is that further tightening of environmental regulations does not create more jobs, nor increase competitiveness, nor even improve health in a significant way. The opposite is more nearly the case - as borne out by economic reasoning and by scientific facts. Not coincidentally, environmental issues have been muted during the campaign and since the election.

Bill Clinton surely understands that the electorate has not given him a mandate for environmental extremism. Its goal of zero risk is not only unrealistic, but unattainable and infinitely costly. In this connection, it is encouraging to note that the new EPA administrator Carol M. Browner has begun to question the zero-risk-based standard set by the 1958 Delaney amendment - currently 3 percent of America's Gross National Product, and rising rapidly - more effectively in the private sector, and thereby improve human well-being.

Much campaign argument had been devoted to whether tightened environmental regulations create more jobs. Wrong issue!

The real questions are - or should be: Do we need more stringent environmental controls for better human health and ecological values? Are the additional benefits worth the additional cost? How clean is clean? The answers to these questions are not easy to come by and require real solid scientific data and understanding. They want productive economic growth, not unproductive make-work jobs based on excessive regulatory appeals and activist rhetoric. Society can do longer afford to waste resources on a large scale.

Existing regulations already put a huge burden on the U.S. economy, more than $600 billion per year, according to detailed studies by economist Thomas Hopkins of the Rochester Institute of Technology. Former chief White House economic advisor, Professor Murray Weidenbaum of Washington University, calculated that about a quarter of this sum relates specifically to the environment. These astronomical costs do not show up in the federal budget or in income taxes, but are a direct expense on business, which of course must pass it along to the consumer in the form of higher prices for everything he buys: food, housing, transportation, and all other goods. The average annual "environmental tax" on every American household now exceeds $1,500 and is growing rapidly.

There is also something surprisingly naive about the belief that government spending can create more jobs. As humorist Dave Barry puts it: "See, when government spends money, it creates jobs; whereas when money is left in the hands of taxpayers, God only knows what they do with it. Bake it into pies, probably. Anything to avoid creating jobs."

The purpose of environmental regulation is not and should not be to create jobs. Its announced purpose is to improve human health and protect ecological values. But once past the initial level, further clean-up yields little in the way of health benefits. Households could take the $1,500 and spend it better on food and shelter and proper medical care. It is well-recognized that "wealthier makes healthier."

If human health and a better standard of living are the major societal objectives, then we solid scientific data and understanding. They want productive economic growth, not unproductive make-work jobs based on excessive regulatory appeals and activist rhetoric. Society can do

Quota Hunt Permits Available from Game Commission

As hunting season nears, the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission is reminding hunters who use public wildlife management areas (WMA's) not to forget about quota hunt permit requirements.

Quota hunt permits, in addition to licenses and certain stamps, are required for the first nine days of the general gun season on most wildlife management areas and for special pre-season and post-season hunts.

Eddie White, the Commission's quota hunt coordinator, said hunters who have not received a quota hunt permit already should apply this week before the third phase of the permitting process begins.

"Hunters who already have received a special and/or regular quota hunt permit may obtain additional permits during the third phase which begins Oct. 2," White said. "Those who wish to obtain additional permits should complete another regular and/or special quota hunt application and mail it to the address shown on the forms."

The wildlife management areas stamp tab that is required for all applications submitted before Oct. 2 is not required during the third phase. After Oct. 1 hunters may write their wildlife management area stamp number or sportsman's license number in the space provided for the stamp tab.

During the third phase, remaining permits are awarded on a first-come, first-serve basis. Typically all quota hunt vacancies fill up quickly on the third phase begins. Hunters may submit as many application for as many different wildlife management areas as they like, but they must submit a separate application for each area.

CRUSADER CORNER

High School news

It was an exciting time for the Crusaders last week as the student body received their 1993 yearbooks! We are very proud of the work our yearbook staff has done and know that many fond and happy memories have been captured and stored on its pages.

Thanks to Bro. Paul Rose who brought his revival evangelist, Danny Lanier, from Little Rock, Mississippi to our chapel last week! The Crusaders enjoyed some great singing and preaching and many decisions were made for the Lord! Congratulations to our Star Student for October - Sharon Wetherington! Sharon, a senior, is the daughter of Wayne and Teresa Wetherington of Belle Glade. Sharon is a member of the National Honor Society, Top Priority, Senior Class President, Cornerstone, the Crusader Choir, Key Club and plays varsity volleyball and basketball. Besides all her extra-curricular involvements, she is also an excellent tutor! Sharon is a member of the First Baptist Church in Belle Glade and, upon graduation in May, plans to attend a university, major in math and become a high school teacher.

This Saturday, some of our high school students won't be sleeping in. The PSAT will be administered beginning at 8 a.m. sharp in Room 2 at the school.

Our eighth grade class visited the Science Museum in West Palm Beach Tuesday. The class went through a 45-minute program entitled "Our Awesome Sun" and then toured the museum and viewed the museum's newest exhibits. Mrs. Angie Mann, teacher, Mr. Joe Guethrie and Mrs. Jill Cunningham made the trip with the eighth grade.

The Sixth Annual Fun Fair is right around the corner! Mark your calendar, for Thursday, October 21.

A lot of hard work is going into this Fair to make it the best ever. This year's theme is "A Country Fair" and festivities will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a costume parade. Ribbons will be awarded for: Most Original, Future Profession, Bible Character, Best Theme and Cartoon/Storybook Character. Booths include: arts and crafts, a mechanical bull ride, Kid's Korner, entertainment booth, dunking booth, golf, general store, barnyard zoo, mock jail and many, many others including lots of food!

The chicken and dumpling dinner, eat-in or take-out, will be served in the cafeteria from 5:30 p.m. to 10 p.m. for a donation of $5. The money collection for the "Kiss the Pig Contest" will run through October 21. The winners, one elementary teacher and one high school teacher with the most money collected, will get to kiss a pig on stage that night. Contact your child's homeroom teacher or the school office for information and/or questions. We hope to see all the Crusader family there for the great food, fun and singing!

The JV football team completed their season last week against Moore Haven. Even with the rain, the players exhibited that "never-say-die" spirit, and the cheerleaders cheered from underneath their plastic bags and umbrellas. Thanks JV athletes for an exciting season!

You can catch our own Junior High, JV and Varsity volleyball teams on the road today at LaBelle. Game times are 4:30 p.m., 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. Playing at home tomorrow night, the Varsity football team takes on American Heritage at 7:30 p.m. Play tough guys! We're behind you all the way!

Until next week ----- catch the Spirit!

GATOR TALES

Glades Day School congratulates Michelle Alvarez, who was crowned 1993 homecoming queen during halftime ceremonies of the varsity football game against King's Academy.

Michelle is president of the Student Council and editor of the senior section of the '94 yearbook. A member of the National Honor Society, she was voted Best All Around and Most Dependable Senior Girl. She is the daughter of Gilberto & Luisa Alvarez of Belle Glade.

The crowning of the queen capped a week of activities that saw faculty and students dressed in outfits from beach bums to bell bottoms and hippie beads of the 60's for Spirit Week. Unfortunately, the weather didn't cooperate with the Gator Growl, a pep rally planned for last Thursday evening, for it washed out the night's activities, JV football game and all.

Luckily, Mother Nature did smile upon the Gators on Friday as the skies cleared for the parade down Main Street. The theme was "Gators In Shining Armour" and featured floats built by grades 7-12. The Class of '95 won first place in the high school division (Gr.10-12), with the sophomores in second place and the seniors in third. The seventh graders took top honors in the junior high division (Gr.7-9), with the eighth graders coming in second and the ninth graders third. Additional attractions were Homecoming Court members, Class Mr. & Miss in grades 7-12, Little and Tiny Mr. & Miss Elementary, the varsity football team, cheerleaders and various decorated trucks. A big thank you goes to the City of Belle Glade Fire Department and WBGF-WSWN radio station for their participation. And a GREAT BIG THANK YOU to the Belle Glade Police Belle Glade Elementary would like to thank all the parents and students who attended the Open House held on September 21. Congratulations to Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Zecca and Mrs. Russell's class for having the most parents attend the Open House.

First and third grade students had the opportunity to attend the Safety Fair held at the fairgrounds last Thursday.

The students learned about the importance of wearing a seat belt, what to do in case of fire and other safety measures.

Second graders also went on a field trip recently. They visited the local post office as a culminating activity for the unit of study "Communities and Neighbors." The students had the opportunity to buy stamps, mail letters and tour the post office.

Raiders remain number one in state poll with Friday's win over Suncoast

By David Ranieri
Sun Reporter

Belle Glade. Glades Central showed why they are the top-ranked team in the state as they hammered Suncoast High School 40-7 last Friday night, at rain soaked Raider field.

Fred Taylor rushed for 169 yards on 10 carries and two touchdowns. Taylor also added a two-point conversion as the Raiders raised their record to 6-0 and remained tied for first place with Fort Pierce Central, who defeated Clewiston 21-0 last Thursday night, in the District 14-3A standings.

Taylor continues to roll up impressive numbers and is unquestionably the star of a tremendously talented Glades Central ball club.

But this squad is unique from many great football teams because they are not concerned with individual performances or personal gain. This is group of young men who have checked their egos at the front door. The Raiders have combined their talents into a cohesive unit, that is bent on destroying the opposition in their pursuit of bringing a state championship to their school and the city of Belle Glade.

Unselfishness and integrity are words that head coach Rick Casco used to describe his football team following their win Friday night.

"We are here to help kids grow," said Casco. "I'm not concerned with who is the leading tackler or which one of our backs ran for 100 yards, it's a team concept. We play together to win and we want to make our kids into men."

Glades Central separated the men from the boys last Friday night as their offense led by the running back trio of Fred Taylor, James Jackson and James Powe ran for 351 yards in the game, exploding for 20 points in the second quarter.

Jackson, who started the ball game instead of Taylor, took advantage of the opportunity.

Jackson scored on a 5-yard run with 10:51 remaining in the second quarter to cap a four play 55 yard drive. Jackson rushed for all 55 yards on that series and finished the game with 137 yards on only seven carries and two touchdowns. Then quarterback Andre Tommie fired to Reidel Anthony for the two-point conversion as Glades Central led 16-0.

Just over two minutes later Glades Central would strike again. This time it was Taylor's turn to show his moves. Taylor rushed for 85 yards during the series and capped the five play 87 yard drive with a 24-yard run. The extra point was blocked.

James Powe added another touchdown for the Raiders on a 19-yard run to give them a commanding 28-0 at intermission.

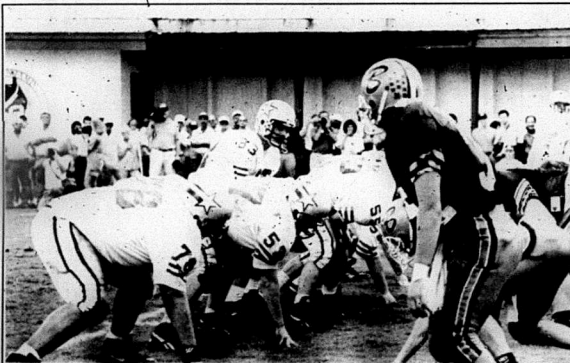

Glades Central stretched their lead in the third quarter as Johnny Rutledge intercepted an errant pass by Charger quarterback Alfred Jerido and returned it 58 yards for the touchdown.

Taylor scored Glades Central last touchdown as he ran 45 yards for the score on the first play of the fourth quarter as the Raiders went on to another easy victory.

Glades Central's stifling defense held Suncoast to 134 yards overall, eight first downs and forced quarterback Alfred Jerido into one interception.

But the Chargers were able to manage one touchdown on Dujuan Cooksey's 23-yard run midway through the fourth quarter. That is only the second touchdown allowed by the Raiders' defense through six games and snapped their streak of not allowing a touchdown in 22 consecutive quarters.

Glades Central will have this weekend off and then play Clewiston Friday October 22 at home.

Gators win first Homecoming game in three years beating Lions

By David Ranieri
Sun Reporter

Rain and bad lightning delayed the Gator's homecoming game until 8 p.m.

The Gator's were fired up after a day of homecoming festivities, but managed to stay focused on the game. The Gator's have lost their homecoming games for the past two years, and were ready to do what ever it took to win.

The Glades Day varsity football team defeated King's Academy 21-0 in a key District 7-1A matchup.

This was the Gators' most important win of the season because they lost to Benjamin 31-12 two weeks ago and another blemish on their record would have probably dropped them out of a district playoff spot.

The Gators are now 4-1 overall, 2-1 in the district and more importantly move into a tie with American Heritage and King's Academy for second place in the District 7-1A standings.

"We got to take one game at a time," said head coach Mandy Perez. "It's going to be tough to win a district championship now that we are trailing Benjamin. Realistically, we can still gain a district playoff spot and see what happens from there."

The Gator's running game proved to be the driving force on offense once again as they gained 303 yards on the ground.

Danny Scott had 92 yards on 12 carries and Jeff Goodale added 84 yards on 13 carries and a two-point conversion.

Then the Gator's turned to Patrick Whitehead when they needed to get the ball over the goal line. Whitehead ran for 46 yards on nine carries and two touchdowns on runs of 5 and 6 yards, and kicked for one extra point, all in the first half.

Quarterback Graham Chancey added another touchdown in the third quarter for the Gators. Whitehead tried for a field goal from the 47 yard line but the attempt failed.

Glades Day's defense was also impressive as they held the Lions to 66 yards in total offense, and not allowing the Lion's to make a first down the entire first quarter, and only a total of three first downs throughout the entire game. This is their third shutout of the season, and the Gator's devastating defense was in total control this week.

Leading the way for Glades Day were: Jeremy Lovell and Wren Sloan with 10 tackles each, Brad Seider had nine tackles and Ryan Mann had eight tackles and two pass deflections. Ryan Courson and Shawn Whitlock added one sack each.

The Gators have another important district game against Moore Haven (3-3 overall and 2-2 in the district, Friday at 7:30 p.m.)

"They are a much improved football team and they have won their last three games in a row," said Perez.

This must be good advice, look at that grin.

Graham Chancey looks like he is going to enjoy the next play after getting instructions for the next play against the Lions. Graham scored a 16 yard touchdown in the third quarter.

JV Gators fall to King's Academy in OT 12-6

By David Ranieri
Sun Reporter

Belle Glade. The Glades Day JV football team had an opportunity to avenge an early season loss to King's Academy Saturday night at the Gators' field.

The 20-6 loss to King's Academy during the second week of the season was the only blemish on the Gators' 4-1 record this season.

Glades Day jumped out to an early lead. On first down and ten, Stacey Cox took the hand-off from Heath Norman and ran 79 yards for the touchdown. Then Duke Tucker was stopped by the Lions' defense on the two-point conversion run.

Cox went on to have a big first half as he ran for 142 yards on 10 carries against a Lion defense that held him to 81 yards on 10 carries in the Gators' loss September 9.

But Cox's run was the only score in the first half that was dominated by defense.

Kings' Academy tied the score on their first possession of the second half as Vincent Muzzolo plunged into the end zone on a 1-yard run. Then half back Chad Daley was stopped short on the two-point conversion try by linebackers Thomas Norman and Pablo Sanchez.

The second half continued to be dominated by defense and both teams squandered excellent scoring opportunities in the fourth quarter.

Glades Day would get a break as Caleb Evans recovered a fumble on the Lions' 29 yard line as the King's Academy punter could not handle the snap. The Gators would drive to the Lions' 2 yard line when Cox fumbled the football in the end zone and was recovered by King's Academy.

The Lions would get a chance to win the game in regulation as Heath Norman was stopped short of a first down on the Gators' 32 on a fake punt. But two plays later quarterback Jason Norcross' pass was intercepted by Clay Hughes on the 9 with eight seconds left.

King's Academy pulled the game out in overtime as Vincent Muzzolo scored on a 10-yards run on their first play from scrimmage.

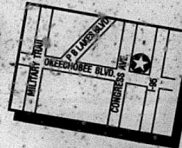

Glades Day now 4-1 will play at Benjamin, Thursday at 4 p.m.

King Gator's Feast takes first place in Glades Day School's Homecoming Parade

"King Gator's Feast" was the title for the float built by the Junior class, which took first place in the big school division at Friday's homecoming parade. The sophomore class took second place with their float "Sir Chomps-A-Lot" and the Senior class took third place with "Slay The Lions". In the Jr. High division the Seventh grade class won first place with "Joust 'Em", second place went to the Ninth Grade class and "Gators Knight Out", the Eighth Grade class took third place with their theme "Gators are Right On Target". The night was right and the spirit of the Gators rang out with Victory when their team won the Homecoming Game against the Lions. The Gator's also enjoyed a Victorious Homecoming Dance after the game.

WHIPLASH

Whiplash injuries can result from a sudden backward and forward whipping movement of the neck, caused by an auto collision, a fall, a powerful slap on the back, or even a violent sneeze. The ligaments and muscles controlling the spinal segments are stretched or sprained, allowing the vertebrae to slip into abnormal positions. Nerves are then "pinched" or irritated, giving rise to headaches, nausea, dizziness and other pain.
